Why Do I Care About What People Think?

Memory Verse: O God, you have taught me from my earliest childhood, and I constantly tell others about the wonderful things you do. Now that I am old and gray, do not abandon me, O God. Let me proclaim your power to this new generation, your mighty miracles to all who come after me. Psalm 71:17-18

Introduction: When you stand in front of a mirror, what do you see? Like me, you probably notice every flaw and imperfection. It's impossible to measure up to beauty according to today's culture. But God looks at the heart. So why do we care so much about what people think of us? Even though David was young and in the eyes of the enemy, weird looking, he was still obedient to God and willing to let God use him to defeat the enemy. Our prayer is that this week's passage will help you realize that you are unique and created specifically by God for a purpose.
