From the Pastor

Dear First Family,

Grace and Peace to each of you today! I have some exciting news to share with you! On Sunday, January 28th, we'll welcome a candidate in view of a call as our Associate Pastor for Pastoral Care. You'll find information about our candidate in next week's Banner. I've known the candidate for quite some time and have found him to be a man of exceptional Christian character and integrity. He has experience as a senior pastor and as an associate pastor. He has met with our ministry team and with our personnel committee and got unanimous support from both groups. I believe you'll enjoy getting to meet him and his lovely wife. Pray expectantly for Jan 28th and what the Lord will do with that date for us and our candidate.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH MUST BE SOUGHT

One of the themes I touched on Sunday was Personal Purity. If I've learned anything in my walk with the Lord, it's that spiritual growth doesn't happen automatically. It happens when I choose it. Many times, people regard personal purity as something I keeping myself FROM. I want to challenge you to see it as something you're keeping yourself FOR. By saying "no" to some things, I can say "yes" to those things that matter most, like a consistent prayer life, a consistent Bible reading time and regular times for personal worship as well as Sundays.

PASTOR PRAYER PARTNERS

This Saturday morning, please join me in our fellowship hall for the first meeting our Pastor Prayer Partners. We'll gather at 9 AM with a continental breakfast. The meeting will conclude by 10 AM - it has to. My Josh is playing basketball at 10 AM and I'm one of the coaches! Seriously, one of our core values is prayer. I'm inviting you to express that in your participation. I've been asked if one MUST attend this to join the team. The answer is a resounding no! This is the introductory event but isn't the only entry point. If you'd like to be included in future emails about the Prayer partners, send me an email at dwood@fbc-midland.org or call my office and we will get it done! In the meantime, pray without ceasing for God's Spirit to move among us!

DEACON NOMINATIONS

Over the next several weeks, you'll have the opportunity to nominate new deacons. You'll find the ballot in this Banner and around our foyers. Please pray with me for those God will call out for this important task of serving Christ and His church by serving FBC.

Proud to be your pastor,
Dr. D

Sermon on the Mount by Jen Wilkin

What does it mean to be a citizen of Heaven? The Sermon on the Mount articulates what the life of a Christ follower should look like, asking us the same questions it posed to its original hearers: How should a disciple relate to sin? To others? To the law? How does a disciple think, speak and act? We'll examine the words of Jesus in-depth as He challenges us to think differently about repentance, salvation and sanctification. Led by Carisse Burwell, Beginning January 10th, 6:00pm in Room C206

A Praying Life by Paul E. Miller

For most of us, prayer is so hard that unless circumstances demand it, we simply do not pray. Prayerlessness is rooted in unbelief. Because of prayerlessness, our lives are often marked by fear, anxiety, joylessness, and spiritual lethargy. If prayerlessness marks your life more often than not, A Praying Life is for you. Paul Miller introduces us to prayer that regularly and consistently hopes, trusts and expects God to act. $10 Led by Berry Simpson., beginning Jan. 11th, 6:30 a.m., Room D101.

Financial Peace

Led by Jason and Jenny Sims beginning January 10th. $75/couple - can register on the FBC website. Room C205 6:30 - 8:00pm

When our relationships are weak, we suffer in many ways: health, addictions and life fulfillment. We will learn how to control our own emotions, lower our stress, and end angry arguments. This 8 week course, led by Larry Grimes and Cory Brand, will begin January 17th, 6:00 - 7:30pm in Room C207. Register online $20/couple

Sacred Parenting by Gary Thomas
