Why Do I Have To Go To Church?

Memory Verse:

This is how we have come to know love: He laid down His life for us. We should also lay down our lives for our brothers. If anyone has this world's goods and sees his brother in need but closes his eyes to his need—how can God's love reside in him?

1 John 3:16-17

You go to church to learn about Jesus, to pray with others, and to fellowship with Christians who will encourage you in your walk with Christ. God designed the church to be a body of believers who devote themselves under the headship of Christ to studying the Bible, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer. In today's Bible passage, we see how the new believers pooled their resources for the common good of all. They knew that everything they had was given to them by God and therefore belonged to Him. Pray and ask God to renew your devotion to Him, His work, and His people. Pray that you will find joy in coming to church.

Question of the Week:

Individual believers make up the church or the body of Christ. The local church (for you it's First Baptist Church), of believers exists to pray together, tell others about Jesus, worship God, learn from the Bible, meet the needs of others, and encourage one another. What is one way that our church fulfills these roles?
